NO calculator practice

1. Kamden and Leila share £54 in the ratio 5 : 4

   Work out how much each person gets

                    Kamden £ . . . .

                      Leila £ . . . .

2. There are some soft toys and some building blocks in a toy box.

   The total number of soft toys and building blocks is 72.

   The ratio of the number of soft toys to the number of building blocks is 3 : 5

   Work out the number of soft toys in the box.

                      2. . . . .

3. Muni and Noori share £42 in the ratio 3 : 4

   Work out how much each person gets

                       Muni £ . . . .

                       Noori £ . . . .

4. There are some plain biscuits and some chocolate biscuits in a tin.

   The total number of plain biscuits and chocolate biscuits is 42

   The ratio of the number of plain biscuits to the number of chocolate biscuits is 5 : 2

   Work out the number of chocolate biscuits in the tin.

                      4. . . . .

Answers: 1) Kamden £30 and Leila £ 24   2) 27   3) Muni £18 and Noori £ 24   4) 12